

99 Miles from L.A

P. David Ebersole

Frank, a frustrated singer-turned-music professor finds himself entangled in two love affairs—one with Shelley, a highly-educated, unhappily married woman, and the other with Ramon, a strong-but-silent bartender.

The trio jump at the chance to implement Shelley's scheme to steal the skimmed-cash treasure from her marijuana business tycoon husband.

With a trunk full of money and the aphrodisiac of lawlessness urging them on, was lust morphing towards love? Or was there a deeper plan in place between these three desperate partners, each of them scratching at their last chance for freedom from a failing American dream?

About the author

P. David Ebersole is an American television director and independent filmmaker, working in both narrative and documentary. Born and raised in Hollywood, he is the son of a psychologist and his step-father was the City Editor of the Los Angeles Times.

He began his film career as a child actor in 1978, moving behind the camera in 1994. Most recently, he directed and edited the documentary HIT SO HARD (2012) about drummer Patty Schemel of the seminal grunge band Hole. Along with his husband and business partner Todd Hughes, he is Executive Producer of the subjective documentary ROOM 237 (2012), and DEAR MOM, LOVE CHER (2013), which he also directed. The duo co-directed and produced MANSFIELD 66/67 (2017) about the last two years of Jayne Mansfield's life, the award-winning HOUSE OF CARDIN (2019), and MY NAME IS LOPEZ (2021) about trailblazing Latino rock and roller Trini Lopez.
