The Feral Boy who lives in Griffith Park

Tim Kirk

Tim Kirk writes and edits a collection of stories set in a world where “The Feral Boy who lives in Griffith Park” exists. The largest urban park in the nation, dwarfing New York's Central Park by five to one, is the fertile ground where new myths and legends grow. A murderous Western Swing guitarist, a golf caddie turned tabloid writer, a pair of tweakers at their first parent support group, a suicidal father taking his last hike, and other stories span decades of life in Los Angeles.

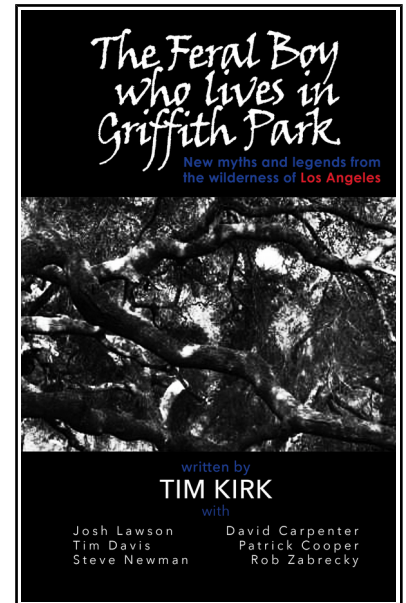

Featuring stories by David Carpenter, Patrick Cooper, Rob Zabrecky, Steve Newman, Tim Davis, and Josh Lawson.

About the author

Tim Kirk is a writer and filmmaker living two miles from Griffith Park. He is the author of the multi-generational Western novel, Burnt. His films include Sex Madness Revealed, Director's Commentary: Terror of Frankenstein, and Bewitched. He has produced Room 237, The Nightmare, And With Him Came The West, and episodes of Tom Explores Los Angeles.
